

NO BOUNDARIES INTERNATIONAL ART COLONY

Application

No Boundaries Artist Colony, Bald Head Island, North Carolina, USA

Always the first two full weeks in November (starting the 1st Friday). International applications must be submitted by March 31st of the Colony year. Domestic applications must be submitted by May 15th of the Colony year.

The No Boundaries Art Colony takes place in beautiful Bald Head Island, a barrier island on the southernmost coast of North Carolina. Twelve domestic and international artists reside and work in a communal setting in the three historic cottages that make up Captain Charlie's Station. Once participating artists arrive in Wilmington, North Carolina, No Boundaries, Inc. provides housing, ground transportation, and food. International artists also receive a package of art supplies. Each attending artist contributes two completed works of art to No Boundaries Inc. and additional works may be selected to remain as part of the exhibition. The Colony culminates in an exhibition of artwork from the attending artists at the Wilma W Daniels Gallery on the campus of Cape Fear Community College.

No Boundaries also provides outreach opportunities for artists to participate in our community through Acme Arts Studio, UNCW Art Department, CFCC Art Department and DREAMS of Wilmington. Should you be interested in making a presentation or working with students please let us know. If you are interested in staying up to date with No Boundaries and our alumni ‘Like’ us on Facebook
